

RMT Ltd Quality Policy

RMT Ltd. Company's field of activity is development, production, selling and maintenance of thermoelectric modules (generators and coolers) and sub-assemblies based on them, as well as electronic devices.

The Company's activity in the field of quality is aimed at developing and manufacturing competitive products, which meet and exceed Customer's expectations, and at ensuring constant growth of the Company's economic potential and profit.

QUALITY IS A KEY COMPONENT OF OUR COMPANY'S DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY AND SUCCESS.

RMT Ltd. aims to become a modern and recognizable manufacturer in the international market with a reputation as a reliable and profitable supplier of high-quality products for Customers.

The Company provides high quality of products, focusing on the key aspects of its activities:

- Quality of work with our Customers. RMT Ltd. seeks to fully meet the Customers' needs, deal promptly with their demands, and provide technical support when it is needed.

- Quality of development and production. RMT Ltd. uses innovative solutions, ensures high technological level and complex control of the processes.

- Quality of technological equipment. RMT Ltd. uses high-tech and precision equipment, complies with the requirements of the technological processes, repairs and replaces the equipment if necessary. RMT Ltd. is committed to continuous improvement of technological processes.

- Quality of components and consumable materials. RMT Ltd. uses high-purity substances, works with reliable suppliers and carries out incoming quality control.

- Competence of staff. RMT Ltd. ensures the highest level of the staff's competence, plans and provides professional training and skill development trainings.

The implementation of the Quality Policy by all employees of the Company implies an understanding of the tasks assigned to them, professional trainings, planning of works and their provision with the necessary resources, constant monitoring of the compliance of the work performed with established and applicable requirements, regular assessment of the functioning of the quality management system and its improvement.

RMT top management undertakes to comply with the established and applicable requirements, regularly assess the functioning of the quality management system and constantly improve the quality management system, and is responsible for the implementation of this Quality Policy and communicating it to all employees of the Company.

RMT top management encourages the staff to contribute to the quality of our products for the stability and development of our Company!

CEO of RMT Ltd.

/Uemura Keiji/